

ORGANIZATION OF ICMR SPONSORED NATIONAL LEVEL SEMINAR ON “BIOANALYSIS IN CLINICAL RESEARCH: CURRENT STATUS AND CHALLENGES”

ICMR sponsored national level Seminar on the theme “Bioanalysis in Clinical Research: Current Status and Challenges” was held on 11th October, 2014 at Anand Pharmacy College, Anand, Gujarat run by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal. The seminar enabled each of the participants to discuss, share and clarify various such issues on Bioanalysis like sample preparations and challenges faced during bioanalytical method development and validation, Applications of bioanalysis in BA/BE studies; pharmacokinetic studies etc. in clinical research. Dr. Shailesh A. Shah, Director of Maliba Pharmacy College was the Chief Guest during the inaugural function as well as delivered the plenary session on the theme of approach for bioanalytical sample preparation and addressed various challenges and broad outlook on past and current scenario. The resource persons and panelists were from Clinical Research Organization as well as from leading Pharmaceutical Industry; Ms. Arpana Prasad, Director, Cliantha Research Ltd., Ahmedabad; Dr. Deepak Jain, Manager- Pharmacokinetics, Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd., Vadodara, Mr. Abhishek Jain, Sr. Scientist- Bioanalytical, Veeda Clinical Research, Ahmedabad and Dr. Debashish Kar, Quality Assurance Head, Alembic Pharmaceuticals Ltd., Vadodara. Dr. Kalpana G. Patel, Professor and Head, Department of Quality Assurance was the Organizing Secretary, and Dr. Purvi A. Shah, Professor, Dept. of Quality Assurance was the Seminar Convener.

Organized by: ANAND PHARMACY COLLEGE
(Managed by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal), Opp. Town Hall, Anand, 388 001, Gujarat, INDIA. +912692-250020 | www.apc.ac.in